The first ALT auction was a great night of fun and fellowship. Alan Newell, our auctioneer did a great job and we raised £2030. We wish to thank all those who donated items, promises and gave of their time on the night to make the evening the success it was.

The calm before the storm... Pamela checks and double checks that everything is there that should be there.

Bidding gets underway...

Alan's good humour certainly kept us all amused during the proceedings.

Not long into the auction, a furious battle ensues, pitching mother against daughter. Only this time, its over who will get the trip to Donegal!

Graham takes all opposing bids extremely seriously...

Philippa and Jessica display their wares for the curious onlookers...
