

Our friends from America (Adventure Leadership, Ohio)

A special thank-you to Trevor and daughter Amiee Currans for all the fine cooking.

An ALT group who were doing their Canoe & Kayak Safety tests stayed in Dundrum with the Americans for a great time of fun, food and fellowship.

Joy and Dan put their thoughts of the day into their journals. During their stay the Ohio group went kayaking, hill walking and camping in the Mourne Mountains.

Jetlag catches up with Travis

Raymond Shannon (left), Manager of Camp Ganaway on the shores of the Irish Sea, was grateful to our American visitors for their help to get the camp ready for children from different communities across Ireland.

Hugh (right) where did you get those yellow coats? " Fashion is not important when paint is flying and a cutting wing from the Irish Sea!" says Desi (left) Director of Adventure Leadership Training

Ben reaches new highs!

After a morning painting the group has lunch with Pamela Fisher ALT co-ordinator

Jim, what is the joke?!
